Springfield is having an unprecedented epidemic of the grippe. There is an average of one case for each family in the city. There are a number of cases in Monett but not so great a percentage as in other towns near by.

Mrs. J. H. Wyatt, mother of J. C. Wyatt, secretary and treasurer of the Union Trust Company of Carthage, died Monday morning of uraemic poisoning.

A benefit performance will be given at the Bijou, December 20, for the charity work of the Sunshine club.

NOTICE

On account of poor collections and bad debts, we the undersigned coal and wood dealers will sell for cash only on delivery on and after the 15th of December.
